Dear Mr. Polk:

Thank you very much for your letter of 27 October inviting me to attend the 41st Annual Armanent Preparedness Meeting in New York City on 2 December.

I regret that I must decline your kind invitation as my plans are to be out of the country on the date of the meeting. Your thoughtfulness in remembering me is indeed appreciated.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

October 27, 1959

~~Mr. Cabell~~ General Charles P. Cabell
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

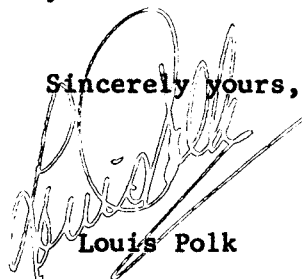

Dear General Cabell:

On Wednesday, December 2, 1959, the American Ordnance Association will hold its 41st Annual Armament Preparedness Meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. On behalf of the officers and members of the Association, I am pleased to extend this cordial invitation to you to be a guest of the Association at all the functions of the meeting during that day and evening.

Throughout the day there will be seminars on the state of our preparedness in the area of weapons and weapons systems by leading spokesmen for the Army, Navy, and Air Force. At midday there will be an armament preparedness luncheon. That evening we will have our Annual Industrial Preparedness Dinner Meeting at which a distinguished company of military and civilian leaders will be present to greet and hear an address by the Honorable Henry Cabot Lodge, The Representative of the United States to the United Nations.

I join with my colleagues of the Association in the hope that you can be with us for all these functions, especially the dinner meeting. If you will advise me before November 16 I will be pleased to send tickets in your name with compliments of the Association.

Sincerely yours,

Louis Polk
